

PUBLIC LEDGER

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1894.

ONE CENT.

Pearce Mills was able to be out yesterday.

Zachariah Walls of McKinney, an old soldier and pensioner, died of pneumonia.

Judge J. F. Dempsey of Moundsville is the latest candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greenwood have sold their two-story frame residence on East Sixth street to A. F. Thomas for $925.

The Campbellsville Fair Association sold its grounds to a stock company, and there will be a fair this fall without doubt.

The Pineville City Council voted them selves $3 salary each for every meeting, with no restriction as to the number of meetings.

The Ladies' Mite Society of the M. E. Church, South, will meet this evening at 7 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Lucy Keith on Front street.

Miss Josie Dwyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dwyer, former residents of this county, died at Covington. She was buried at Germantown.

Steam fans have been placed in some of the windows at the Cotton Mill, and by drawing the heat out they reduce the temperature from twenty to thirty degrees.

Colonel Robert Crittenden of Frankfort, son of ex-Governor John J. Crittenden, mistook poison for medicine and narrowly escaped death. Physicians worked with him all night, and it is now thought he will recover. Colonel Crittenden is the only living son of John J. Crittenden. General Thomas Crittenden, another son, having died about a year ago.

BASEBALL.

Game This Afternoon Between the Ripley Browns and Regulars.

The Ripley Browns will cross bats with the Maysville Regulars at the Park this afternoon.

It promises a good game, and a large attendance is expected.

The seats in front of Floral Hall are comfortable and protected from the weather, and there are ample accommodations for ladies, who are cordially invited.

The street car company will provide every facility for transportation to and from the Park, and all who attend may be assured of a pleasant afternoon.

MEMORIAL DAY.

The Program For Its Observance in Maysville This Year.

The following is the line of march and program to be observed by Joseph Heiser Post on Memorial Day, May 30th, 1894:

The members of Joseph Heiser Post No. 13 and all ex-soldiers will assemble at G. A. R. Hall at 1 o'clock p. m.

Column will move at 1:30 sharp.

Line of march will be East on Thirteenth to Bridge, North on Bridge to Second, on Second to Union, thence by street cars to railroad crossing on Carmel street, where the procession will re-form and march to the Soldiers' Monument in the Cemetery.

There will be a prayer-meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Central Presbyterian Church. It will be held in the main room of the church, and it is requested that all the members be present, as there will be an important business meeting held immediately after service.

The Weekly Public Ledger!

THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN, which is the Weekly Edition of The Public Ledger, is issued every Saturday. It contains 40 columns of choice reading matter, twenty of which are made up of editorial, local and neighborhood news. It is a splendid paper to send to Kentuckians living in distant places, as it gives all the news from home. Price $1 50 a year. Now is the time to subscribe.

A telegram from New York yesterday reported a favorable change in the condition of Howell F. Barkley. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barkley are with him.

Wanamaker & Brown, the unequalled tailors and clothiers, have a branch house in Maysville, where a large line of samples are displayed to select suits from, either "made to measure" or "ready to wear." Prices from $8 to $35 a suit. Cooper's Building, West Second street, upstairs.

THE LATEST officially announced deficiency in the State Treasury is $388,792. Maybe JACK HENDRICK can stop that crack.

A BRIGHT PROSPECT.

DEMOCRACY, Defalcation, Deficit, Disaster, and Damnation are aptly alliterative aphorisms, always applicable and alike appropriate.

HERE'S hope for Editor MARSH. He now comes out square-footed and flat-footed and denounces the action of the recent Democratic Congressional Convention for its insult to Tom PAYNTER.

WORKINGMEN who are striking for higher wages do not seem to understand that high wages and Democratic rule are incompatible. The way to get high wages is to return the party of high wages to power.

It has been pretty well settled that Senator TURPE of Indiana was drunk when he charged Senator ALDRICH with making a "maliciously false" statement in regard to the four hundred amendments to the Tariff Bill. He was guilty of TURPE-tude, at all events.

THE Senate Finance Committee having reported over four hundred amendments to the Wilson Tariff Bill, it is now in order for tipsy Senator TURPE to again declare that Senator ALDRICH falsified when he said there were "about" four hundred amendments to the bill.

It is not pleasant news to good Americans that because of lack of orders the great Roach ship yard on the Delaware is about to close its gates for the first time in its history. What is more, if Congress passes a free ship bill the gates, in all probability, will never be reopened.

"We denounce Republican Protection as a fraud, a robbery of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few."—Democratic Platform, 1894.

But the Democratic Senate of 1894 regards Democratic Protection as all right; provided it is limited to a few wealthy corporations, known as Trusts.

THE Senate is making rapid work of the Tariff Bill. In a six hours session it actually disposed of three of the "concession" amendments. As there are over four hundred of them, and if the others do not strike a knot, the Senate may get through with the job in time to eat Thanksgiving turkey.

FREE wool will not lead to the impoverishment of many now engaged in sheep raising, but the reduced supply of sheep will make mutton very much higher in price and thereby affect the price of beef as well. There is a point in this that should be fully considered, for it affects every individual.

SENATOR MILLS of Texas, after denouncing the new Tariff compromise and calling it several viles sorts of sham and fraud, humbly says he will obey orders and vote for it. By the same token Mr. MILLS would stop over with rage at a quack doctor and then meekly consent to guyl down the latter's medicine.

CROVER CLEVELAND and his advisers have devised a bill which proposes to array the South and Europe against the industries of the East, the North and the West. It is a sectional measure supported by a foreign alliance. The Cleveland brand of Americanism consists of 10 per cent. of fine wool and 90 per cent. of imported shoddy.

THE NEXT HOUSE—A PREDICTION.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
The Republicans are not bothering themselves about their next candidate for President, all of their interest being concentrated at present upon the work of doing away with a Democratic Congress.

WHAT REPUBLICANS ARE DOING JUST NOW.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Republicans are not bothering themselves about their next candidate for President, all of their interest being concentrated at present upon the work of doing away with a Democratic Congress.

WILL SUE THE TOWN.

Louisville Journal.
The Town Marshal of Iola, Kan., interrupted a poker game, and the man who was about to open a big jackpot on an ace full had been persuaded by a lawyer to begin suit against the municipality for damages.

AN EXPLANATION.

Chicago Tribune.
A Cincinnati Minister has shocked his congregation with the declaration that this country needs a king. It is supposed the indignation of his auditors arose from the fact that they thought the reverend minister was plotting a third term for Czar Cleveland.

THE LATEST officially announced deficiency in the State Treasury is $388,792. Maybe JACK HENDRICK can stop that crack.

A BRIGHT PROSPECT.

Hardly had Edison announced his theory that sleep is a mere habit out of which a man can be easily trained before a French scientist asserts that the food of the near future will be an assortment of chemical pellets. The prospect of getting rid of alarm clocks, cooks and indigestion is cheerful, even if apparently remote.

SONG AS A MIXER.

New York Tribune.
Senator Brie is reported as saying that Mr. Sorg, the wealthy Democrat who has just been elected to Congress from Ohio by a reduced majority, "is a popular man and a good mixer." What precisely a "good mixer" is we do not know. We do know, however, that any change from the muddlers who are now trying to run the Government must be an improvement. The Democratic majority in the House now stands: 1 Mixer, 232 Muddlers.

SOUTHERN CLASS IGNORANCE.

New York Times. (Dem.)
There is an inexhaustible fund of ignorance in the South of today, and it is coming to be represented, to the exclusion of everything else, in the state governments of several Southern States and at the National Capital. Even men who know better, like Senator Butler of South Carolina, who represents the Old South, in which the ignorant masses took their opinions from the educated classes, do not venture to confront and defy the accumulation of ignorance.

THE Senate Finance Committee having reported over four hundred amendments to the Wilson Tariff Bill, it is now in order for tipsy Senator TURPE to again declare that Senator ALDRICH falsified when he said there were "about" four hundred amendments to the bill.

BOSTON BLAZE.

It Starts on the Baseball Grounds During a Game.

Sixty Small Buildings Burned After the Baseball Structure

Had Been Burned Away—Twelve Acres of Territory Burned Over—A School House and an Engine House Destroyed—A Possible Loss of Life.

BOSTON, May 15.—The most disastrous conflagration that has visited the city in the south end of the Boston baseball grounds. The scene of the devastation was that section of Roxbury beginning on the narrow street that is the extension of Columbia avenue, and extending to Walpole street on the south, and to the western boundary of the ball grounds.

Twelve acres of territory were burned over. The base ball grand stand and bleachers, a schoolhouse, an engine house and nearly sixty cheap dwellings were destroyed and several hundred persons rendered homeless. Half dozen persons were seriously hurt, and it may be that several were burned to death. All the fire apparatus in the city was ordered out and help asked from surrounding towns.

The destructive conflagration had its inception in what is believed to be an attempt to incinerate a building in a quantity of smoldering grass or wood. The first intimation of the danger was found shortly after 4 o'clock when the contesting nines had completed their third inning.

There was a sharp crackling among a small group of young men on the bleachers. Men jumped to the ground, and a thin line of curling smoke was seen, which ascended from a little pile of smoldering rubbish under the seats. The supposition of the young men was that some one had dropped a cigarette or match from the upper tier of seats, and that this had ignited the rubbish.

The fire at first was considered a joke. The 8,000 spectators began to get impatient that such a little flame should stop the play, and patiently cried, "Let the boys play ball." The smoke a few minutes later increased in volume, a fact that indicated that the fire was gathering headway.

Bannon, the Boston right fielder, from his position in the field, soon saw enough to show that the flames were serious in nature. His eye detected through the tiers of seats a streak of fire, and he rushed under the seats and tried to stamp the flames out with his feet.

For a few moments he seemed to hold the fire in check, but when he rose and his cap he tried to smother the flames. A sudden gust of wind, which at times was blowing with the force of a gale across the grounds, seemed to fan the crackling embers into renewed life, and then suddenly the flames leaped and rolled themselves into one vast wave of fire, soaring and threatening all before it.

In a few moments the whole mass of right field bleachers was a sea of flames. In less than ten minutes after the fire showed itself the old wooden buildings rang with the roar of the engines of alarm. The sheets of flame not high in the air, the heat, increased by every gust of wind, being intense. At the same time the fire ran along the right field bleachers, much like the running of a train of powder.

Coxey & Co. Get No New Trial.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The trio of commonwealth leaders, "Gen." Coxey, Marshal Clegg Brown and Christopher Collier, Jones met at the police station in the police court Tuesday. After six hours and a half spent in the arguments on motion for a new trial, Judge Miller overruled the motion and notified the defendants to appear Thursday for sentence.

Farmers' National Congress.

CHICAGO, May 16.—The officers of the Farmers' National congress were in session Monday evening. The motion of the B. F. Clayton of Iowa, presiding, that the object of the meeting was the preparation of a programme for the fourteenth annual convention of the organization, to be held in Parkersburg, W. Va., is November.

Engineers Inforce the Blue Label.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 15.—The only action of importance taken by the Blue Label cigar manufacturers Tuesday was the endorsement by unanimous vote of the cigar-makers' blue label as a mark of union goods. The rest of the day was devoted to routine matters.

Shot the Robber.

SHEDDIEVIL, Ind., May 16.—The residents of Daniel Smith, agent of the Blue Label cigar manufacturers, Tuesday was the endorsement by unanimous vote of the cigar-makers' blue label as a mark of union goods. The rest of the day was devoted to routine matters.

Mashed for Seventy Cents.

CHILLICOTHE, O., May 16.—While trying to straighten out their accounts Monday afternoon two barbers, named Al Miller and Charles Hadden, got into a scuffle in the barber shop, which ended in Miller stabbing Hadden twice with a pocket knife. The latter is in a precarious condition.

Complaint Because People Die Slowly.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 16.—The Indiana Funeral Directors' association is having its annual meeting here. The membership is 250 out of 500 in the business in Indiana. The members complain of dull business, saying the death rate never was so low.

GREAT CROWDS

Or Odd Fellows Throng the Streets of New York, to Help Dedicate the Fine New Temple.

CINCINNATI, May 16.—There are fully 20,000 visitors in Cincinnati, who have come from every direction, to witness the exercises attending the dedication of the Odd Fellows' magnificent new $300,000 temple at Seventh and Elm streets.

It has taken three years to build this structure, which is in many respects one of the grandest in the country.

The building itself is gayly decorated from the seventh floor to the basement.

Throughout the city, especially along the line of march, the decorations are profuse.

Each incoming train brings vast excursion parties, and the hotel lobby contains one surging mass of human beings.

At 9:30 a. m. the reception to the visiting delegates was held in the temple, Mayor Caldwell delivering the address of welcome. Grand Master Milo Clapp announced the arrival of the 10,000 delegates. Then at 10 o'clock the grand lodge went into secret session in the banquet room, and the grand encampment of the state convened in the hall of Wilsey encampment.

Large numbers of Patriarchs are also here to assist in the exercises, and their bright, shiny uniforms add military splendor to the occasion.

The dedication took place at 8 p. m. in the auditorium of the new temple. Arrangements had been made to admit a limited number of persons to the grand, every nook and corner being jammed to overflowing. Dr. David H. Moore, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, delivered the principal address.

"Uncle Jimmy" Armstrong, chairman of the committee on arrangements, in calling the assembled Odd Fellows to order, said: "We are 10,000 Odd Fellows of Cincinnati we beg of you to accept heartily what we have prepared for your entertainment and pleasure."

He then introduced Mayor Caldwell, who delivered a short address to the representatives present at the session of the grand encampment in Wilsey hall.

The first steps taken toward building the temple was purchasing the old Burnet homestead at Seventh and Elm streets for $150,000. The Odd Fellows' Temple Co. was incorporated at Columbus February 1, 1892, by the following local Odd Fellows: Charles W. Manning, Thomas Ruff, Robert Heider, Geo. B. McMillan, W. H. Soards, Lewis VanDen, George Rowe, Ira A. Bacon, T. J. Williams, John H. Hall, John M. Williams, Herman Charles Theobald, Joseph Sacha, H. Weikamp, Walter Hallam, William Lutherine. One-third of the money came from the grand lodges of the various states, and that had ignited the rubbish.

The fire at first was considered a joke. The 8,000 spectators began to get impatient that such a little flame should stop the play, and patiently cried, "Let the boys play ball."

The first steps taken toward building the temple was purchasing the old Burnet homestead at Seventh and Elm streets for $150,000. The Odd Fellows' Temple Co. was incorporated at Columbus February 1, 1892, by the following local Odd Fellows: Charles W. Manning, Thomas Ruff, Robert Heider, Geo. B. McMillan, W. H. Soards, Lewis VanDen, George Rowe, Ira A. Bacon, T. J. Williams, John H. Hall, John M. Williams, Herman Charles Theobald, Joseph Sacha, H. Weikamp, Walter Hallam, William Lutherine. One-third of the money came from the various states, and that had ignited the rubbish.

The fire at first was considered a joke. The 8,000 spectators began to get impatient that such a little flame should stop the play, and patiently cried, "Let the boys play ball."

While Mr. T. J. Richley, of Allona Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus.

He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely.

It is made for bowel complaints and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by
